The Season of Easter

The Fifty Days

The Great Fifty Days are the period of rejoicing in the Risen Lord between the Easter Vigil and Pentecost. During this season the Paschal Candle is lit at all services and "Alleluia" is sung on all possible occasions. Traditionally the liturgical color is white, except for the Day of Pentecost. A fixed feature of the Eastertide lectionary is that a lesson from Acts be included.

Rogation Day

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday (May 5—7) before Ascension Day (May 9) are the traditional Rogation Days. Their traditional themes are the planting of crops and prayer for their increase. The Rogation Days have no direct connection with the Fifty Days, it is simply that spring planting occurs at this time.

Ascension Day (May 9th)

Ascension Day never falls earlier than April 30 nor later than June 3 and is 40 days after Easter and always on a Thursday.. On this day, we remember Jesus being carried up into heaven.

The Day of Pentecost (May 19th)

The 50th day of the Great Fifty Days of Easter is the Day of Pentecost, a Principal Feast Day. The Season After Pentecost follows but the Day itself is part of the Easter Season. This is the day the we remember the bestowal of the gift of the Holy Spirit on the apostles and signals the beginning of the apostles' public proclamation of Jesus as the Christ. It is often called the birthday of the Christian Church. The color of the Day is red.
